Chapter 1 by Paul

Hello! I am Prof. Bumble, and today is a special day. Like the Fridays when you go to McDonalds! Anyway where was I? Ah yes, Today is a special day "Why is it so special then?!" I hear you ask. Well today is the day I have completed the 'S.I.D.R.A.T' (Space and Inter-Dimensional Robot All-Purpose Transporter). How you found me? I do not know! But now you can be my new lab rat. As the last one.. 'Disappeared'. Well today you will travel back in time to Ancient Egypt to see how mummification was like. I will come with you, as a hologram, and if you succeed... you get to keep my machine! Well, what are you waiting for!? Jump in and you will begin your adventure!

Ah! Ancient Egypt! Well you can start, but do not worry, I will guide you. I read a comic about this! Okay let's start off slow, we have to make sure the person is dead. Do this by checking their pulse. "How do I check his flipping pulse!?" I was getting to that part! Anyway, do this by holding up your index and middle finger, and (while holding them together) lay it on their neck. If they ARE alive, proceed to the next step!
